

Camp Compass 2018 Summer Program Logic Model

Inputs	Outputs		Outcomes -- Impact
	Activities	Participation	Short	Medium	Long
Funders Staff Volunteers Schools Collaborating Agencies and Businesses Research Base Transportation Program Evaluation Parents/Caregivers	Academic <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Literacy and math instruction by certified teachers Enrichment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Activities coordinated around a weekly theme Field trips Collaboration with community agencies and businesses Nutrition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Breakfast Lunch Snack Backpack Feeding Program Quality Assurance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Trained staff and volunteers Modeled after UpSpring (Cincinnati, OH) Family Engagement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pre-camp meetings Communication with parents Camp events 	100 students 72 enrichment classes 6 field trips 6 swim days Collaboration with 30+ community agencies 5,800 meals served 2,900 snacks served 21 staff members trained 20 volunteers trained 2,000 volunteer hours 75 families engaged	Improved math ability Improved reading ability Increased knowledge and experiences Increased connection with community Improved nutrition Less hunger Well –trained staff and volunteers Continuously-improved program Parents are knowledgeable	Improved school engagement Improved academic performance Broader worldview Develop new skills Discover strengths Improved health Improved ability to concentrate Student-centered program Parents and program are aligned for student success	Perform at or above grade level in school Close the achievement gap Skills to become a productive citizen Healthy habits Greater well-being High level of trust with community stakeholders Parents are actively involved in their child's education